First place this year went to United Way supporters Lamont Layton, Bud Kurtz, Duane Younts, and Mike McLean.

Representing the United Way Agency Chesterwe Center, Ron Walden, Lew Mason, Rodney Bliss and Dan Bungori came in second.

The team with the highest score that day represented BankAnnapolis and included (l to r) Jennifer Senner, outgoing United Way President, Carlene Hurd, Renee Kremm and Tracy Smith. Golf Co-Chair, Corky Shawn (in the back) is with Duke's Golf Works and agreed to give the team free lessons! This team, being the only all women's team, also won the distinction for being the first place women's team!

Representing the Hole In One Sponsor, Hertrich Ford of Easton, was Amber Lawrence (left) and keeping her company that day was United Way Board Member and Hole Sponsor, Merry Tobin of Chesapeake Real Estate Associates.

Incoming United Way President, Paula Warner shares a moment with Golf Chair, Art Potts. Paula's Fine Jewelry was the Golf Glove Sponsor. Every participant got a glove and a chance to win a real diamond!

United Way Board Member and Golf Committee Member, Todd Wilhoit and his son Evan enjoying a moment on the course! Todd is with Chesapeake Investment Planning and sponsored the coolers that each golfer received.

Team Deloitte & Touche which included Chris Murphy, United Way Board Members Andy Read, Adam Phippen and Doug Read stop to enjoy a quick bite!

Promotional Sponsor, SCIT was represented by (l to r) Rob Anderson, Scott Surguy, Duke Darrigo and Duke Darrigo, II.
